

This gift supports ELCA World Hunger.

A woman may have the dream — and the leadership skills — to start her own small business. But with little savings or access to credit, getting started can be a challenge. A microloan can be just what a woman needs to start her business — weaving, baking or running a storefront, for example — to create a steady source of income and, even better, help her family overcome poverty. And as she repays the loan, the funds are reinvested in a cooperative so that the cycle of giving will continue to grow.
